

Student Overview

Students will apply their knowledge of accounting to the real world! Whether they are interested in becoming an event planner, a personal chef, travel agent, or a ski instructor they will need to use accounting. Once students decide what business they want to run, they must create realistic transactions based on interviews with a current business owner. After students' have a list of transactions they will journalize them, create a trial balance and a balance sheet.