

Student Overview

During this lesson, students will learn about forms of business ownership, types of businesses, organizational structures, and social responsibility. A local owner of a business will come in so students have an opportunity to ask questions about what they learned in a real life context. Students will visit a local restaurant in order to create a report and PowerPoint presentation that addresses knowledge learned as well as aspects such as layout and menu.